

TEN MEN DEAD AND TWO INJURED AS SCAFFOLD BREAKS ON GOLDEN GATE SPAN AND SAFETY NET FAILS

PLAYGROUND IS TO BE INCLUDED IN IMPROVEMENT

Quarter Block Site Will Be Located Near Center Of Crocker Tract

Included in the current civic improvement project is a $15,000 quarter block playground to be developed at a central location in the Crocker Tract.

Swings, slides, sand boxes and other playground equipment will be installed to make the little park attractive to children. Grass, shrubbery and trees are to be planted for a beautiful landscape effect, and benches will be provided for the comfort of mothers or care takers of children.

Because of its location in the center of an area heavily populated by juveniles, the playground will serve more than 1000 children. To keep them off the streets and to sponsor supervised play on a well equipped site will be a genuine advancement in safety and social education, say Daly City civic leaders.

"Residents in the Crocker section of Daly City," declared Mayor Paul Selmi recently, "have been waiting patiently for the solution to a problem of child welfare which confronts them."

"Playgrounds for children is the great need in that part of our city. Other improvements necessary to the development of a community have been acquired in the Crocker tract. At present there is only a small balance owing on the improvements already made, and it is now time to think of satisfying further needs."

his belief that the grand jury should investigate and learn "what is behind the whole matter."

Flanked by numerous financial statements and other carefully selected documents, the chairman declared he desired changes only in the interests of economy. However, he

The proposed "economy" plan of Chairman Smith of the County Board of Supervisors in attempting to curtail efficient service of the justice courts in the First Township by abolishing one of the two now functioning under the jurisdiction of Justice Wade H. Clay, has evolved into considerable of a snarl.

Monday of this week Judge Clay, justice of the peace for this district, appeared before the Board of Supervisors to refute Smith's contention that the costs of conducting these courts is excessive and unnecessary. The controversy developed into a heated discussion between the chairman and the judge in which charges were made that there was something "back of the move" other than a mere desire for economy.

Although Smith contended his recommendation to the board was not prompted by any ulterior motive, the statement seemed to be far from convincing to a number of interested citizens, among them members of the bar and civic leaders.

Tranquility reigned at the board meeting, and it was apparent that, although Judge Clay was present, there appeared to be a desire to adjourn the session without airing the momentous question.

However, not to be thwarted in his effort to bring the facts to the attention of the members of the board and the interested citizens present, Judge Clay arose and requested to be heard.

He explained that the costs entailed in administering his office was justified, and, after being "baited" by the board chairman, declared it as

Two Workers Are Rescued, One Body Is Recovered And Tide Carries Seven To Sea

All hopes for a safety record on the Golden Gate Bridge construction were shattered, Wednesday of this week, when ten workmen plunged 250 feet to their death following the collapse of an "unapproved" traveling scaffold which ripped down the protective life net.

One body was recovered, the others were sought by searching parties in boats and planes.

Two more members of the crew, who plunged with the ten ton scaffolding and safety net into the water, were rescued. They were seriously injured.

Twelve men fell with the debris and net.

A thirteenth man was saved by clinging to the lower bridge beams, bridge headquarters announced.

The tragedy, first major accident on the $35,000,000 structure in which workmen have fallen to the water, came when scaffolding, used to strip paving forms from under the bridge floor, collapsed.

Timothy A. Reardon, state director of industrial relations, said the traveling scaffold, put in use for the first time Tuesday of this week, was installed without the commission's approval or inspection.

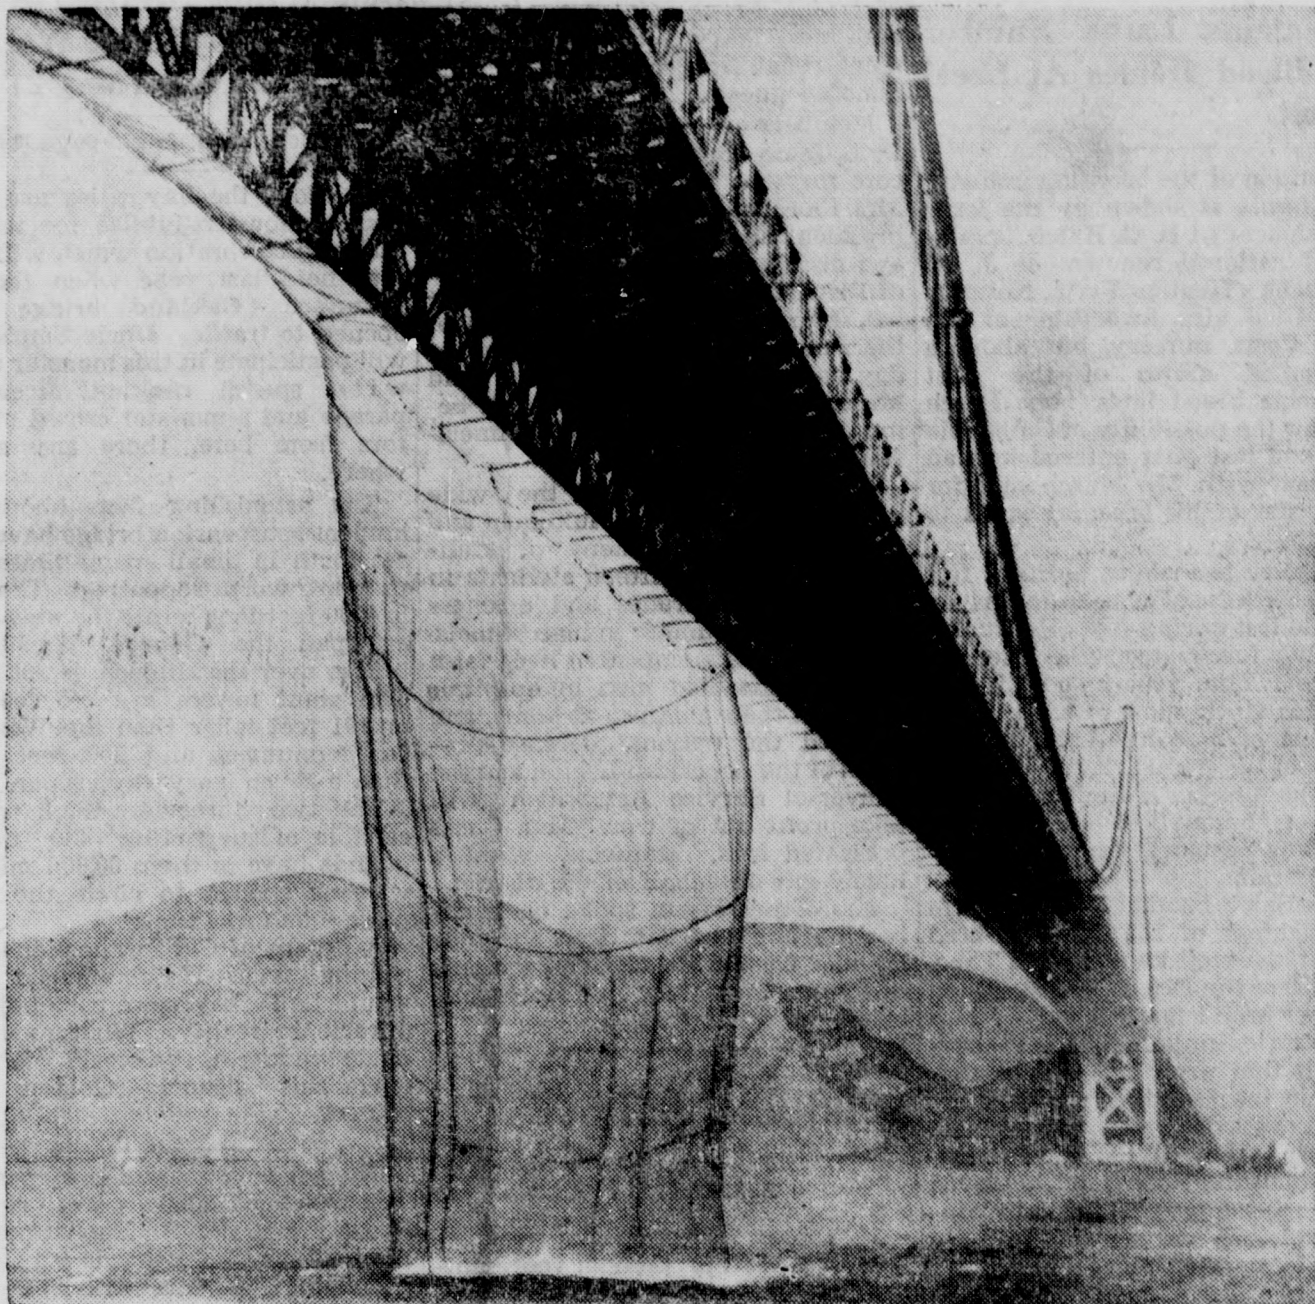

He pointed out that the tremendous mass of the structure was too much

BRIDGE SUICIDE

A man who last week shot himself through the head and toppled off the rail of the notorious "suicide bridge" became the eighty-second victim at the favorite suicide spot near Pasadena. He was identified as Albert Marsden, 50, of Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Ten Die When Golden Gate Bridge Safety Net Breaks

Taken the instant the safety net on the Golden Gate bridge ripped away from the center of the giant span and plunged ten men to their death in San Francisco bay, this remarkable photo (above) was taken by an International News Photo cameraman who was at that moment waiting to photograph fishing boats. Thirteen men were working on a traveling scaffold which collapsed and ripped the net. Twelve were plunged into the water, two of whom were rescued alive by fishing boats. The "thirteenth man" swung dangerously 250 feet above the water clinging to bridge structure until saved by fellow workmen. Photo at left is a closeup of the ripped net. Note the boat searching for the bodies of the dead men, feared swept to sea or entangled in the submerged net.

GIRL KILLED IN AUTOMOBILE CRASH ON BAYSHORE HIGHWAY NEAR BONECOAL PLANT SUNDAY MORNING

Father Was Accident Victim Two Years Ago — Family Left Without Support

As a result of an automobile accident on Bayshore highway near the bonecoal plant, early Sunday morning of this week, a San Francisco girl was killed and her companion held in the county jail at Redwood City on a charge of negligent homicide.

The second member of her family to die in a Bayshore highway collision, Josephine Schonbacher, 21, 2101 Revere avenue, San Francisco, was killed when an automobile driven by Joseph Stinson, 40, 2582 Third street, San Francisco, sideswiped the car of Clayton Clarkson, 35 Baywood avenue, San Mateo, according to police.

PASSING ON CURVE

Otto Schramm, acting highway patrol captain, said Stinson's automobile had swung out of its traffic lane on a curve and in pulling it back into the lane the rear end crashed into Clarkson's machine.

Miss Schonbacher's skull was crushed and she was pronounced dead on arrival at Mission Emer-

In announcing the appointment of Ward, Dr. Gans said he selected the Menlo Park man for his wide experience as a welfare supervisor and administrator. Ward was chosen, he said, from a number of applicants for the post, and will have a free hand in reorganizing the welfare division.

WIDOW OF DUEL VICTIM DIES AT STATE HOSPITAL

Stone Monuments Mark Spot Where Last California Battle Of Honor Took Place

Report of the death, Monday of this week, of Sarah Althea Terry, 89, famous belle of early San Francisco days, in the Stockton State Hospital, recalled the historic duel between Judge David S. Terry and Senator David C. Broderick, which took place in 1859 not more than a mile from the present western boundaries of Daly City.

Another local angle concerning the life of Mrs. Terry was the famous court battle she waged, before her marriage to Judge Terry, for the estate of Senator William Sharon,

Sarah Althea Hill Terry

Peninsula and San Francisco multi-millionaire, whose heirs still own a large part of the original tract in the foothills west of Menlo Park. She claimed that Senator Sharon had entered into a marriage contract.

The duel in which Senator Broderick was killed and Judge Terry was fatally injured took place in a ravine on the eastern shore of Lake Merced, about 200 feet south of the San Mateo-San Francisco County line. The dueling spot, marked by stone monuments, may be seen from the seventh tee of the San Francisco golf course.

Mrs. Terry had been confined in the Stockton hospital for more than 30 years. Almost to the end she retained the fragile beauty which had made her famous, and throughout the years in the hospital she dressed with all the fashionable frills of the glamorous era of the '80s.

TREASURE ISLE FAIR SITE IS NOW ONE YEAR OLD

First Anniversary Of Start Of Work Finds Project Near Completion

Treasure Island, the 400 acre man made site of the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition on San Francisco bay, began its second year of growth this week.

The first anniversary of the beginning of work finds the island more than three-quarters complete, with three steel buildings already under way.

Work was begun February 11, 1936, when a fleet of dredges began filling in land northeast of Yerba Buena island. The end of work the first year found the fill about 80 per cent complete, with the seawall 83 per cent complete. The entire island will be finished by August 1.

BUILDINGS BEGUN

Buildings, the exotic exposition palaces of the future, are already going up. Steel girders are in place for the east and west hangars of the permanent airport buildings. The foundations are being laid for a terminal. The hangars will cost $400,000 each and the terminal $800,000. They will be used during the Exposition, from February 18 to December 2, 1939, as exhibit buildings, but after

FAMOUS OWNERS SELECT HEATHER FARM TO BREED

Nationally Known Sportsman Maintains Large Number Of Blood Horses At Local Plant

Expansion of the breeding industry in California is shown by the large establishment of H. C. Hatch, sportsman of national renown, at J. W. Marchbank's Heather Farm. Not only is the tried sire Sweepster at the Contra Costa nursery, but about a dozen brood mares of the most fashionable blood lines. Mr. Hatch early saw the possibility of California racing and last year entered into an agreement with Mr. Marchbank for the transfer of his breeding stock to this state.

Sweepster is making his first full season at Heather Farm, as he arrived very late last spring from Kentucky, and only a few matrons were sent to his court. This year in addition to the Hatch stock some outside mares have been sent to Heather Farm on account of the popularity of the stallion. The number is limited and the owner of the stallion only accepts for mating purposes females of approved strains.

In the Hatch band at Heather Farm are daughters of the Whitney-bred Pennant, the well known High Time, Marathon of the Ben d'Or line, Ogden and other brood mare sires.

Owners looking forward to having foals that probably will be successful in the breeding paddock are inclined toward Sweepster inasmuch as his progenitor Sweep and his maternal grandsire, Rock Sand, achieved notable records as sires of both winners and brood mares.

Each season Mr. Marchbank takes advantage of the presence of Sweepster at Heather Farm and mates some of his matrons with the stallion.

Schools Sponsor Lincoln Essays

In 1933 Arthur Bodien, representing a group of public spirited citizens, presented to the Jefferson Elementary School District a bronze plaque of Abraham Lincoln. Each year since that time school children have written competitive essays on Lincoln.

The writer of the best essay wins for himself and his school the bronze plaque. His name and school is engraved on it, and the plaque remains on display in the school for a year, until the next contest is held.

ESSAY JUDGING

The identity of the writer of each essay is concealed when judges, who are P. T. A. members, choose the winners.

This year the plaque was won by Claudia Butini of Jefferson School. Second place was awarded to Betty Morris of Crocker School and third place went to Nadine O'Brien of Woodrow Wilson.

DREAM OF OUR PIONEERS NEAR TO COMPLETION

Golden Gate Bridge, Greatest Suspension In the World, To Be Open May 21

will know, the bay cities are planning a monster jubilee for this occasion, a celebration which will rival that held last year when the San Francisco - Oakland bridge was opened to traffic. Uncle Sam's fleet will participate in this monster event, with speech making, fireworks, parade and a monster crowd of visitors from here, there any everywhere.

The astonishing facts about this immense suspension bridge have been set forth in detail many times. But they are worth repeating. The span is 4200 feet long while the next longest span, the George Washington bridge over the Hudson, is 3500 feet. The giant towers are 746 feet tall or 191 feet taller than the Washington monument and 300 feet taller than a seven story skyscraper.

The two three-foot-thick cables capable of supporting 430 million pounds have in them 80,000 miles of wire or enough to circle the earth more than three times.

A dream of California pioneers is coming true. How amazed they would be if they were to behold the miracle in reality. What new man made wonder of the world will challenge this gigantic Golden Gate bridge?

The art of propagation by grafting was practiced 2000 years ago in Rome. The U. S. Department of Agriculture still regards it as a promising field for work.

Council Bolsters Health Department

On January 25 the city council appointed a committee, which with the City Health Officer, Dr. A. A. Shaghoian, will form the Board of Health of Daly City. Members of this committee are Mayor Paul Selmi, Councilmen H. Sundermann and E. Cavagnaro.

This board held its first meeting, Friday evening of last week. It was clearly pointed out that to carry on such important functions properly, expansion of the health department was imperative.

ATTEMPT TO CURTAIL JUSTICE COURTS CAUSES BITTER WRANGLE BEFORE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

Final Decision Deferred To Future Date — Attorneys And Civic Leaders Oppose Proposal did not evince any desire to enter into the spirit of a grand jury investigation of the controversy, and his lengthy explanations appeared lacking in sincerity and not entirely convincing.

RECORDS IN SOAP BOXES

During the discussion Judge Clay told the board that when he took office he found records of the justice court "kept in soap boxes and clothes closets." He said he replaced this with an efficient filing system.

Asserting South San Francisco taxpayers "are entitled to a justice court," Clay declared:

"With all due respect to you gentlemen, I have a right to conduct my court wherever I please."

The jurist said there had been printed in the newspapers large headlines about an "investigation of my office expenses."

"You are thinking of a lot of things politically, Judge Clay," said Smith. "You are thinking that I came down here to work a lot of hardships on you, when that is not even in my mind."

"Then let the grand jury investigate this thing, and see what's behind it," the judge retorted. "I'm willing."

Referring to the time when his police judge predecessor, Johnson, maintained his justice of the peace offices in the city hall of Daly City while the county was paying rental, Judge Clay said he would "also like a grand jury investigation of the records of what occurred during your (Smith's) administration in municipal government."

Judge Clay's contention that "ten thousand people of South San Francisco are entitled to a court" was supported by City Attorney John W. Coleberd of South San Francisco.

Any change in the present setup of a court at Daly City and one at South San Francisco was protested by City Attorney Dan Convery of Daly City on behalf of the city council, and Police Judge Rudolph A. Rapsey of San Bruno.

Rapsey suggested an "impartial body" of members of the county bar, he named to investigate necessity of two courts.

"I don't think you've reached the heart of the matter," he told the chairman. "You cannot make a comparison of Judge Clay's courts with others in the county on a basis of income and geography."

None of the other members of the board except the chairman entered the controversy.

The bitter argument ended when Supervisor James S. James of Burlingame interceded and said that "there are probably a lot of facts which the board should be acquainted with before a final decision is made." He then moved to adjourn the session to a future date, which motion prevailed.

LAWDALE JOINS PROTEST

The town of Lawndale added its protest against the proposal to eliminate one of the courts.

A letter from Mayor M. Jensen to the Board of Supervisors said the Lawndale council "is satisfied with the existing setup and hopes the board will not change the situation."

"Let us play the good neighbor, as our President has repeatedly requested," the mayor wrote. "Let us forget personalities."

DALY CITY DON'T LIKE IT

The following resolution was unanimously adopted and a copy sent to the Board of Supervisors:

Resolution No. 573

Resolution protesting against any changes in the existing setup of the Justice Court of the First Township.

Whereas, the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Mateo has proposed certain changes in administration of the Justice Court of the First Township, which changes contemplate the elimination of one of the existing offices and the discharge of the justice's clerks, and

Whereas, said Board of Supervisors has assigned as a reason for said changes a claim of economy to the county, and

Whereas, Courts of Justice have never been considered to be money making enterprises, and on the contrary serve the sole and only function of administering justice, and

Whereas, the First Township is geographically situated in a manner which is not comparable to the remaining townships of the county, in that there are two principal cities in the First Township, widely separated, viz., South San Francisco on the east and Daly City on the west, that in addition there are the incorporated cities of San Bruno, Lawndale and Bayshore, besides large areas of un-are more compact and concentrated than is the First Township, and

Whereas, citizens desiring to transact business with the Justice Court are entitled to service which they now enjoy but which would be rendered impossible by the proposed changes, and

Whereas, the Justice Court of the First Township as presently constituted and set up is more efficient than ever before in its history, and

Whereas, the present efficiency of said court is due in large measure to the maintenance of two offices in which at all times a clerk can be found who is competent and ready to care for the business of the public, and

Whereas, the business conducted by the Justice Court of the First Township is approximately equal to business transacted by the remainder of the townships in the aggregate, and

Whereas, the First Township is entitled to have said court so continue;

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the City Council of the City of Daly City that said City Council does hereby protest to the Board of Supervisors of San Mateo County against making any change whatsoever in the existing setup of the Justice Court of the First Township, and

Be it further resolved that said City Council hereby calls upon said Board of Supervisors to maintain said Justice Court in exactly the manner in which it is now maintained, and

Be it further resolved that the Clerk of the City of Daly City be and he is hereby instructed to send a copy of this resolution forthwith to said Board of Supervisors of San Mateo County.

I hereby certify that the foregoing resolution was passed and adopted by the City Council of the City of Daly City, California, at a special meeting of said Council held the 11th day of February, 1937, by the following vote, to-wit:

Ayes, and in favor thereof, Councilmen: Cavagnaro, Sundermann, Twisten, Fahey, Selmi.

Noes, Councilmen: None.

Absent, Councilmen: None.

Attest:

B. C. ROSS, City Clerk.

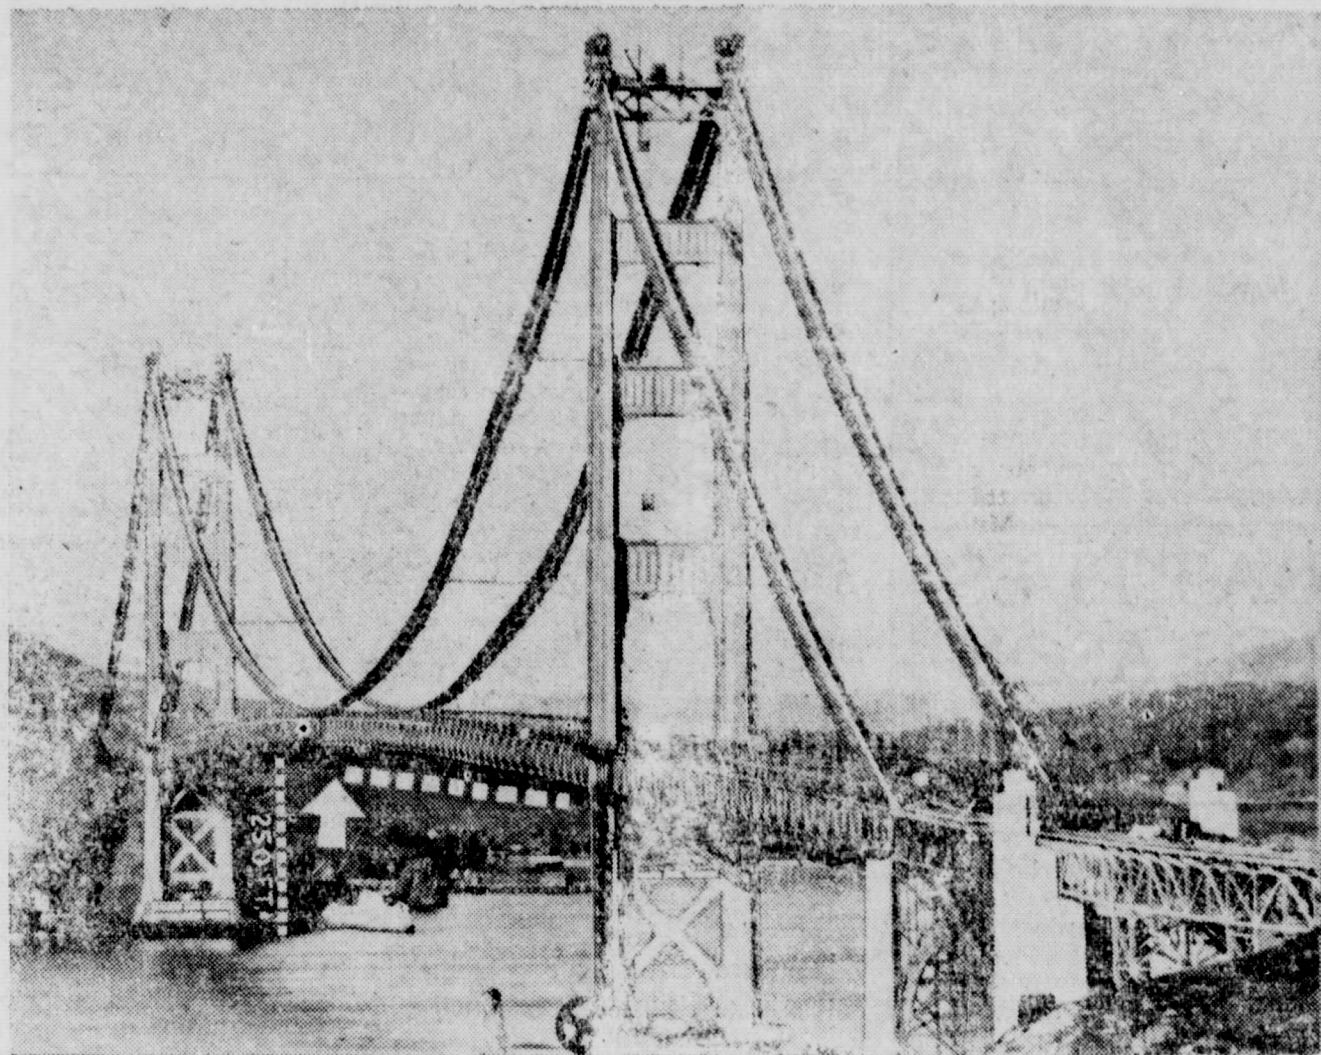

Petitions Out For Charter Change

Petitions for a special election on a charter amendment to make the office of county executive elective were in circulation early this week. It is reported that more than 500 persons in the Redwood City area have already signed the documents.

County Clerk Hinman announced that petitions will require 3595 bona-fide county signers, or 10 per cent of the vote cast at the last gubernatorial election. He said the petitioners would have until March 20 to file with the Board of Supervisors.

Former Assemblyman Fred Peterson is leading a county wide drive for a vote on the amendment proposition.

Where Ten Workmen Plunged To Their Death

Indicated by dotted line is the section of the safety net on the Golden Gate Bridge which tore away when a traveling scaffold collapsed and plunged through the net. Twelve men dropped 250 feet to the San Francisco Bay, where a fishing boat was able to rescue only two of them.

for the safety net, built to withstand 400 pounds pressure at one point.

The wooden structure, with its human cargo, plummeted into the safety nets thirty-five feet below, ripping the nets like tape from a spool and cheating their life saving purpose.

The first body recovered was identified as that of Fred G. Dummitzen, 224 Downey street, laborer.

Those rescued from the bay were Oscar Osberg, foreman of the stripping crew, and E. C. Lambert, laborer.

Lambert was treated at St. Luke's Hospital for injuries and submersion.

Osberg, suffering from shock and submersion, was treated at Mary's Help Hospital.

Scene of the accident was in dead center of the bridge.

A fishing boat, passing under the bridge at the time of the crash, was the first to reach the men in the water.

It put into Fort Point life saving station with three victims aboard, one dead.

Lambert's heroism in attempting to rescue Dummitzen was told by Mario Mandella, 1022 Greenwich street, fisherman who picked up the trio.

"When I reached them, Lambert was struggling to keep the dead man up," Mandella said.

"He didn't know the other man was drowned."

Coast guard boats from the life saving station immediately put out to search for the other workmen in the strong running tide.

While six boats combed the waters for the missing victims, airplanes roared over the scene in a search from the air.

It was feared that the missing men, killed or badly injured in the precipitous drop, might have been entangled in the steel mesh of the safety net.

NET RIPPED AWAY

The crashing scaffolding ripped away 2100 feet of the net from the San Francisco pier to the center section of the bridge.

Falling workmen, wooden structure and net crashed into the water, where a six mile an hour ebb tide was running, drifted oceanward and were out of sight in 15 minutes.

Chief Engineer Joseph B. Strauss said the accident was caused by the failure of an aluminum roller casting which partially supported the traveling stripping frame.

The casting on which the scaffold was supported snapped at the arm which hooked over the lower bridge beam, dropping one end of the scaffold and permitting the other end to slip and crash to the safety net.

As the carrier fell, it sheared away wooden and metal forms used in the paving work.

Four carpenters and six laborers were on the scaffold at the time of the crash.

The two other men, both laborers, were working in the net itself, engaged in routine cleaning.

Warned by the roar of the rending timbers, some of the crew attempted to save their lives by leaping into the net—but the debris proved too heavy for the safety device.

FALLS WITH ROAR

Weight of the falling structure ripped out the steel pins holding the net under the bridge, taking the net and workmen with it in its plunge.

There was a momentary hesitation after the scaffolding hit the net, which was unable to withstand the terrific strain.

Then, with a great roar, the entire mass plunged downward, twisted wreckage and helpless men striking the water with a great splash.

Struggling men and debris were carried from under the bridge out toward the heads by the swift current.

The daily yield of the Rouge plant coke ovens is 3675 tons of coke, 95,000 pounds of ammonium sulphate, 12,800 gallons of crude light oil, 40,000 gallons of tar and 55,000,000 cubic feet of gas, most of which is consumed in the plant.

PRESIDENT BATTLES FOR RULE OF REASON

By J. W. MARCHBANK
Pioneer in Frontier Mining Work

President Roosevelt recently said: "In seeking our economic and political progress as a nation we all go up—or else we all go down—as one people."

There is no middle ground. A realization has come to the men and women of the country that they must either be solidly behind the chief executive or align themselves with the opposition; there is no such thing as lukewarm support of the policies of the President. The issue is clear cut:

Are you a liberal or a reactionary? As the San Francisco News said not long ago, Abraham Lincoln held it impossible for the nation to endure half slave and half free, so Franklin Roosevelt insists the nation cannot endure half poverty-ridden and half prosperous.

The whole world sees that President Roosevelt is engaged in a struggle to free the masses from the inequalities, inequities, and insecurities of the machine age.

A special point is made by The London Economist when it says the people will not tolerate the cautious pedant who waits before moving to be sure that every detail of his plan is approved by the orthodox but demand the Roosevelt, who, with all their inconsistencies, become and deserve to become great statesmen.

Everywhere men of vision are watching every move of the President in the reorganization of the administrative and judicial departments of the federal government. In fact, they are not only watching, but praying he will win out.

The administration, as everyone knows, is according some encouragement to the march of the wage earning masses. One reason, of course, is the desire to spread purchasing power. There can be no steadiness in prosperity unless the people are given good wages. That should be axiomatic, but the "economic royalists," as the President often calls them, are so maddened in the pursuit of profits they will not let a little thing like an axiom stop them.

The President's proposal to increase the membership of the Supreme Court has met with the opposition, as was to be expected, of Tories and a sprinkling of men usually on the liberal side.

One of the most lucid statements in support of the proposal comes from E. S. Corbin, professor of jurisprudence at Princeton University. The learned teacher says:

"I am quite sympathetic with the proposal. He makes a very strong argument simply as a way of meeting the problem of superannuation. One argument that he might have used, but didn't, is that an age limit would tend to make replacement of judges more regular. President Haring served little more than two years and appointed four justices. President Taft served for four years and appointed six justices. President Roosevelt has been in office four years and has appointed none.

"This means we are sometimes governed by chance rather than by the Constitution.

"Since the validity of the minimum wage law has come up there have been ten justices who considered it constitutional and only seven who held the contrary. But the seven have always held the majority of the court at the crucial moment.

"I also think the President's proposal is to be defended as simply recognizing the position that the court has come to assume in our constitutional system the position of a super-legislator."

Musical Will Open S. F. Lenten Season

With Cecil Lausten, tenor and guest artist, making his professional debut, the great choral work of Verdi, the "Requiem," will come to its first San Francisco performance in almost a decade on Tuesday evening of next week at the High School of Commerce auditorium, Van Ness at Grove street.

Giulio Silva directs the chorus, orchestra and soloists of this San Francisco federal music project, the first major local event of the Lenten season. There will be no admission charge.

The work will be sung in Latin. Close to 150 singers and instrumentalists will take part, including three renowned soloists: Anna Nettelmann, soprano; Nona Campbell, mezzo soprano and Frank Baken, bass.

The "Requiem," which was written to honor the memory of a friend of Verdi, the Italian poet, Alessandro Manzoni, is presented in seven parts: Requiem e Kyrie, Dies Irae, Domine Jesu, Sanctus, Agnus Dei, Lux aeterna, and a great choral fugue, Libera me.

REMOVE RUST SPOTS

When touching up bare spots on the car it is important that all rust be sandpapered down to the clear metal.

Painting over rust does not stop the rusting process and the rust will break through again when the paint dries.

Cars Are Stalled By West Coast Floods

Southern California received a slight taste of flood trouble during the recent inundation of thousands of acres in central California. When this compton Cal., family became stalled in their car on a flooded highway, mother and son struggled ineffectively to push it out of the swirling flood waters.

Ford Sales For 1936 Show Upturn

Volume sales of Ford parts in 1936 disclosed an increase of 24.5 per cent over 1935, while sales of Ford accessories increased 34.4 per cent over the same period, the Ford Motor Company has announced.

These figures mark 1936 as the best sales year in the past six years. Where sales in December declined in the previous four years, December of 1936 proved the second best month of the year in volume.

The increase in the sale of parts supplied by the Ford Motor Company is the result of more complete coverage of the market. In previous years Ford owners frequently made replacements with parts not supplied by the Ford company. They discovered that parts manufactured to Ford standards of quality and engineered by Ford precision methods were the best replacement parts for the Ford car. They discovered these qualities only in genuine Ford parts. Thus, in 1936, the Ford Motor Company opened a number of new parts distributorships to better serve this increasing market.

Widespread acceptance of Ford accessories is also reflected in that sales increase. Ford accessories, such as radios, heaters, clocks, spotlights, seat covers and others are engineered for Ford cars and trucks and offer several interesting developments.

The Ford radio, for example, has an antennae unlike any other on the market. It controls by a knob from the interior of the car and can be raised or lowered depending on the distance of the station desired.

Too Much Oil

Filling the crankcase to excess causes increased oil consumption, smoking and accumulation of carbon deposits.

Even though the car uses an abnormal amount of oil, it is better that the supply should be replenished at more frequent intervals rather than overfilled.

AMERICAN LEGION DANCE FOR FLOOD BENEFIT SUCCESS

Tidy Sum Turned Over To Red Cross—Juniors Also Do Their Bit

American Legion and Auxiliary of Daly City, No. 410, held a dance, Saturday evening of last week in their hall at 474 San Diego avenue, for the benefit of the Red Cross flood relief fund. The proceeds amounting to $68.38, will be turned over to the Red Cross to help swell Daly City's contributions.

First Vice President Alice Reilly, First Vice Commander A. G. K. Jakobsen and Past Commander Cleo Miller wish to thank all those who helped to make this dance such a wonderful success. Among the distinguished guests present were President Marcie Trier and Commander Charles Whitney, both of the American Legion Twenty-sixth District, Mayor and Mrs. Selmi and Chief of Police and Mrs. James Reardon.

Our Juniors also wanted to do their bit toward the flood relief, so sent over a beautiful doll, made and donated by Sister Margaret Orr, which was raffled off at the dance.

Nothing So Royal As Truth

netting $7, which amount they will donate to the American Red Cross for flood relief.

First Vice Commander Jakobsen is very anxious for the Post to make its quota as soon as possible. We had eighty 1937 paid up dues in by February 14 and Comrade Jakobsen promised District Commander Whitney, at the last district meeting, that we would have 100 by the next meeting, March 5, so let's give him a helping hand. He will be glad to call on you or any prospective new member you may know of by just calling his home, Randolph 6895. Incidentally on membership, we bid you welcome to our Post, Chief James Reardon.

Lesson Sermon Of Christian Science

In all Christian Science churches, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., a Lesson-Sermon will be read Sunday, February 21, on the subject "Mind."

The Golden Text will be: "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding" (Prov. 3: 5). Bible selections will include the following passages from Proverbs 2: 1-2, 5-6: "My son, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my commandments with thee; So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding; . . . Then shalt thou understand the fear of the Lord, and find the knowledge of God. For the Lord giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding."

A passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included, which reads as follows: "Let us accept Science, relinquish all theories based on sense-testimony, give up imperfect models and illusive ideals; and so let us have one God, one Mind, and that one perfect, producing His own models of excellence" (p. 249).

The following Scotch recipe was contributed by Amelia H. Lewis, who sent in, some time ago, a tasty formula for lemon butter.

SCOTCH FINGERS

2 Cups rolled oats, (grind in food chopper),
3 teaspoons baking powder,
1/2 teaspoon salt,
1/4 cup sugar,
1 1/2 tablespoons melted shortening,
1/4 cup molasses,
1/4 cup milk.

Mix dry ingredients, then add shortening, molasses and milk. Mix well. Flour the board with ground rolled oats. Roll in thin sheet, cut in narrow oblongs. Bake 12 to 15 minutes in moderate oven (350) degrees. This amount makes 18 fingers 1x3 inches in size. Syrup may be substituted for molasses.

Mrs. John C. Kinsey again sends in directions for making something good for the cookie jar.

MOTHER'S MOLASSES COOKIES

1/2 cup shortening,
1/2 cup brown sugar,
2 cups molasses,
3/4 cup sour milk,
1 teaspoon soda (dissolved in a little sour milk),
1 teaspoon salt,
1 teaspoon each, cinnamon, ginger and nutmeg,
1/2 teaspoon cloves,
1/8 teaspoon cayenne pepper,
5 cups flour.

Cream shortening and sugar. Add molasses and mix well. Add sour milk and soda alternately with two cups flour sifted with spices and salt. Add remaining flour and enough more to make batter stiff enough to roll and cut. Bake in a moderate oven.

SHADOW STRIPE CAKE

(From the Farmer's Wife)

1/2 cup shortening,
1 cup sugar,
1 teaspoon vanilla,
1 whole egg and 2 extra yolks,
3/4 cup milk,
2 1/2 cups sifted cake flour,
2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder,
1/2 teaspoon salt.

Mix For Dark Layers

2 1/2 squares chocolate, melted,
1/2 teaspoon soda,
3 tablespoons sugar,
2 tablespoons melted butter,
1/4 teaspoon salt,
1/4 cup boiling water.

Cream shortening, add sugar and vanilla, blend well. Add egg and yolks, one at a time and beat well. Add milk alternately with dry ingredients sifted together. Pour one-third of batter into an 8-inch layer cake tin. Add chocolate mixture to remaining batter, blend and pour into two 8-inch layer cake tins. Bake in a moderate oven, 375 degrees, for twenty minutes.

Snow Mountain Frosting

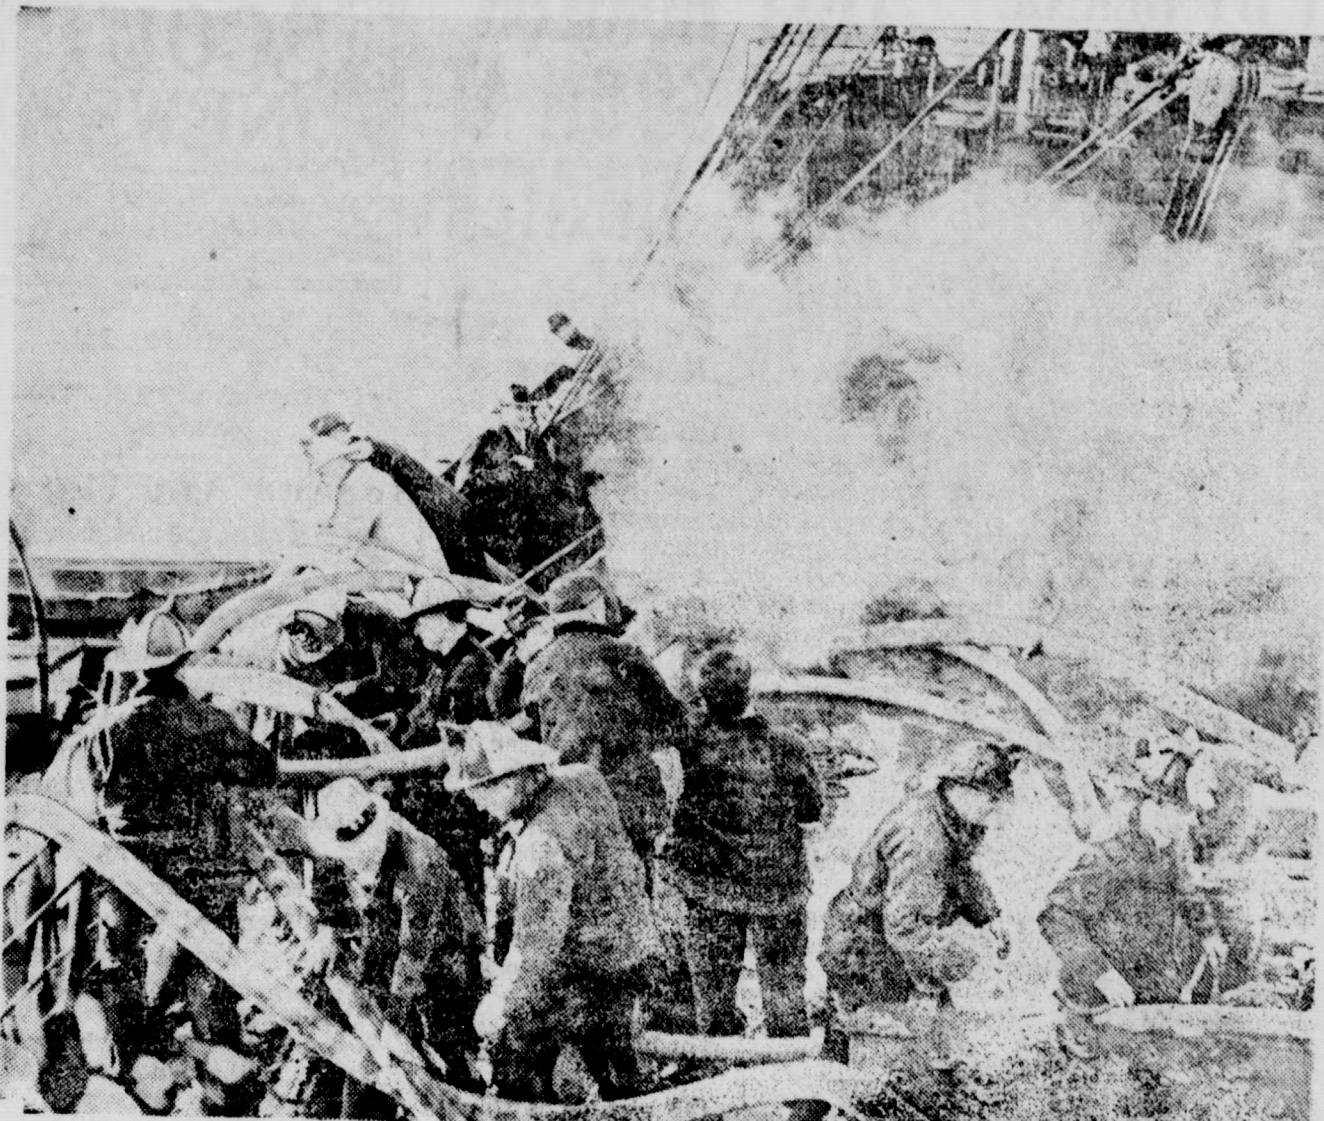

Whites of 2 eggs,
1 1/3 cups sugar,
2 tablespoons water,
2 teaspoons vanilla,
1 teaspoon baking powder.

Beat whites of eggs until stiff, add sugar slowly, continue beating; add water, flavoring and baking powder. Turn mixture into upper part of double boiler, having plenty of boiling water in lower part. Beat until filling is quite warm to touch; then stand pan in cold water and continue beating until cold. Spread between layers and on top of cake. When frosting is set, melt chocolate with butter. Pour over cake allowing it to run down on sides.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

When you have a small rug or hall or stair rug which has become frayed on the ends, fold under the edges and apply adhesive tape on the wrong side. It makes a neat hem, and is much easier than sewing.

Freighter Ablaze, Menaces S. F. Waterfront

Copra fires, dread disaster feared by crews of South Seas cargo vessels, recently menaced San Francisco's waterfront when flames broke out in the hold of the British freighter Wairuna, from New Zealand. With heavy billows of smoke pouring from the ship's copra-filled hold, the spectacular and stubborn blaze attracted thousands of spectators. Firemen, pictured above as they fought to prevent destruction of nearby piers, won their battle after several hours. Spontaneous combustion was believed to have caused the fire, although civic and maritime authorities planned a thorough investigation. One man was injured in the battle with the flames.

Alcatraz Prisoners See Bridge Built

Federal prisoners in Alcatraz Island, the United States impregnable prison in San Francisco Bay, have one of the best close up views of the Golden Gate Bridge, longest single span in the world, flung across the famed entrance to San Francisco harbor.

Alcatraz, the loneliest spot in America, is only a mile away from the bridge over which millions will soon pass.

Prisoners have watched the construction work with the keenest interest.

The great bridge is to be opened with a gala celebration, the Golden Gate Bridge Fiesta, from May 20 to 23, with parades, pageantry and spectacles on land, air and sea.

A thatched roof lasts as long as 30 years. The thatching is saturated with a lime solution to make it fireproof.

FROZEN BATTERY

In severely cold weather it is advisable to run the motor after adding water to the battery to avoid freezing.

The water and acid do not mix readily until chemical action is started.

A Ford V-8 motor has been transformed by a manufacturer into a complete air-compression unit. One bank of cylinders furnishes the power, while the other bank compresses the air.

"BATTLE HYMN" DECLARED TO BE GREAT SUCCESS

Critics Say George Bratt Plays Well In Federal Theater Project

No other production staged by the Federal Theater Projects in San Francisco has won the high encomiums from the critics that the current success "Battle Hymn" has won. Much credit for this success is due to the outstanding performance of George Bratt, who essays the role of the famous abolitionist, John Brown.

It is the first appearance of Bratt with the Federal Theater players. He was formerly identified with some of the better known theatrical organizations in New York, such as the Theater Guild, Provincetown Players, Neighborhood Playhouse, Brady and Wiman Productions. At one time he played under the direction of the late Richard Boleslavsky.

"Battle Hymn" was written by Michael Gold while he was special writer on the old San Francisco Call. The production was later revised in collaboration with Michael Blankfort. Before attempting the epic drama, Michael Gold spent several years in research work in various parts of the country and delved into long forgotten records of the 1850's.

Quotations of Abraham Lincoln, Ralph Waldo Emerson, William Lloyd Garrison, Jefferson Davis and other famous Americans, portrayed in the play, are authentic.

The play is staged in three acts, with a prologue before each, and ten scenes. It has a cast of nearly 100 actors. The production will remain at the Columbia Theater until Saturday, February 27, when it closes to make way for "A Touch Of Brimstone," a smart comedy of modern times.

FOUNDERS DAY CELEBRATED AT JEFFERSON HIGH

Principal Ferguson Addresses P. T. A. Meeting On Subject Of Peace

The Jefferson Union High School Parent Teachers Association observed Founders Day at an elaborate program held in the high school auditorium, Tuesday evening of this week. Mrs. Grace Hill acted as Founders Day chairman.

After a short business meeting, presided over by President Stella Jensen of the unit, Mr. James Ferguson, principal of the school, was introduced and delivered a timely address on the subject of peace. Mr. Ferguson said in part "Peace is the most widely discussed topic of the day. The European newspapers have many articles regarding war and air defense. Protection from air raids is an item of great importance to them."

He gave a vivid description of a visit to the battle fields of France, describing the area about Verdun, where hundreds of thousands of soldiers lie buried, and outlined the effect of war on the European village. A whole generation was wiped out in Europe during the war, but the full significance of war was not clearly felt in the United States. "One can say nothing in favor of war," he said. "Europe is heavily armed today. Our nation is spending vast sums for protective measures and through it all the teaching of the Nazarene is forgotten in the philosophy of war."

Mr. Ferguson also quoted President Roosevelt's view on war, as well as that of the members of the emergency peace commission who recently visited San Francisco.

Music was furnished by the school band and Girls Glee Club, directed by Mr. Stevens. A short playlet under the direction of William Hoppe depicting the history of the Parent Teachers Association was well received.

Following the formal meeting refreshments were served to members and guests in the school dining room, where the usual candle lighting ceremony took place.

Special guests of the evening included Mesdames J. W. Hayes, past state president; Mrs. Lois Miller, Seventeenth district president, and Mrs. M. Spann, Founders Day chairman of the Seventeenth district.

Winning Essay On Abraham Lincoln

(Editor's note—Each year on the birthday anniversary of Abraham Lincoln the Jefferson elementary schools hold an essay contest. The winner this year was Claudia Butini. Below is published her essay.)

LINCOLN, THE MAN

The folklore Lincoln, the maker of stories, the stalking Lincoln, and elusive Lincoln is a challenge for any artist. He has enough outline lights and shadows to bring out portraits of them in his Illinois background and setting, even had he never been elected president.

The embryo of modern industrial society was taking shape during the last four years of his life. The history of transportation, power driven machinery, international trade finance weave through the destiny of Lincoln.

Lincoln, from a child, was companionable and keenly sensitive to the words or ways of people around him. Those people, their homes, occupations, etc. were the background upon which life of Lincoln moved.

The birth of Lincoln was February 12, 1809, on a farm in Hodgenville.

Abe was the chore boy of his farm as soon as he grew big enough to run errands. He wore home made moccasins as a boy, rawhide factory boots as a young man, and calfskin shoes in later years. This means that a vast action must have moved in the record of his life.

As Lincoln grew into manhood, by his studious use of every opportunity, he had not only gained a fair mastery of the English language and of American history, but he also developed a practical and shrewd turn of mind, great humor and sterling qualities of character.

Lincoln held numerous odd jobs before he turned to politics. He served four terms in the state legislature and was elected president in 1860.

During his presidential term important events occurred. The slave question and secession of the states were two of the most important. His term was such that he was re-elected in 1864. Little more than a month after his inauguration, in the midst of national rejoicing over the conclusion of the war, a sudden chill struck the heart of the nation. The

HIT BY BERNIE

Lt. Commdr. R. J. Walker

Ben Bernie, famous orchestra leader and radio entertainer, lately took a poke at Lieutenant Commander Robert J. Walker, U. S. N. The navy officer, it appeared, will hit back with a legal suit. Walker is pictured as he entered his attorney's office in Los Angeles to consider what action he will take.

Two Members of J. C. Board May Resign

There is a possibility that two members of the San Mateo Junior College Board of Trustees will resign their posts in June, when their terms of office expire. Mrs. L. G. Owen and possibly F. T. Letchfield are the members who may leave their posts.

A desire to give the Jefferson Union High School and Half Moon Bay High School Districts, recently annexed to the J. C. district, representation on the college board promoted the probable shifts.

Early beginning of work on the first unit of the new junior college plant was forecast as the board authorized Mrs. Owen, clerk, to set a date for a joint meeting with associates of the late George W. Kelham, architect for the science building, first unit set for construction.

"LOST HORIZON" OPENS SOON AT GEARY THEATER

Colorful And Resplendent Showing Of World Premiere Of Road Show Attraction

Frank Capra's supreme screen achievement, "Lost Horizon," which took two years to make and represents an investment of upward of $2,000,000, will have its world premiere at the Geary Theater, Tuesday evening, March 2.

Hollywood will join with San Francisco notables in signaling this gala occasion. A score of stars, executives and outstanding screen figures are coming by special train from the southland to attend the colorful and resplendent premiere, which will have all the fanfare of Kleig lights and illumination seen at a Hollywood opening.

Because of the importance and length of the picture, "Lost Horizon" has been brought to the Geary as a road show attraction. It will be shown twice daily, with all seats reserved.

Starring in the picture is Ronald Colman, personal choice of Director Capra. Supporting Colman are Jane Wyatt, Edward Everett Horton, Isabel Jewell, Margo, Thomas Mitchell, H. B. Warner, John Howard and Sam Jaffe. There are more than 65 important characterizations, while 5000 extras appear in the spectacular scenes.

Laid in "forbidden" Tibet, a land which few white men have ever entered, "Lost Horizon" required more than a year of painstaking research before a camera went into action.

TROOP NO. 141

Meets Thursday at 7 p.m. at Nazarene Church

Second And First Class Advancement Made

Two scouts, Elza Bryant and Milton Peterson, were awarded badges of second class rank at the court of honor held, Thursday evening of last week, at the father and son banquet. Scout Glenn Goode received his first class badge at the same court, which was composed of J. Mosman, H. Herting, C. Fox, J. Straughan and J. Young, scoutmaster.

Scout Bernard Winn was duly installed as junior assistant scoutmaster at this meeting and took up the duties of that office.

Scout Frank Pate, who was ill at the time of the banquet, is able to be out of bed again but will not be able to go back to school until next week.

The troop paper, The Deep Purple, is progressing steadily. The editorial staff, headed by Assistant Patrol Leader Melvin Dykman, reports that the first issue will be published in the near future. Patrol Leader Alva Bryant, the business manager, anticipates a big sale on the announcement number.

The troop is inaugurating a new system of signal training. The plan is to alternate with semaphore and Morse instruction at the weekly meetings, thus giving each scout an opportunity to master both codes.

LIFE SAVING CLASS

Scouts Alva Bryant, Glenn Goode, Milton Peterson, Melvin Dykman, Elza Bryant and Scoutmaster John Young have enrolled in the swimming and life saving class now being conducted at the Crystal Bath. The class convenes on Monday evenings.

TANFORAN TO DRAW "CLASS" GALLOPERS

By J. W. MARCHBANK

Three weeks from tomorrow the spring meeting of twenty-five days opens at Tanforan. Preparations are in full swing to make the session the best of the series held at the San Bruno course over an extended period. San Francisco and neighborhood have always demanded high class sport and it is the constant aim of the Tanforan management to please the hosts of loyal followers of the great pastime.

It will be recalled that last spring Indian Broom, Top Row, Special Agent, Azucar and other highly regarded runners performed at Tanforan and indications are good ones of equal quality will be on hand, tightened up for racing. The racing strip is not surpassed by any course anywhere, and that is a big factor when trainers are deciding on the next ship.

With interest in breeding ever on the increase, it may be that before many years this state will produce the kind of thoroughbred able to hold his own with the fleetest from the large nurseries beyond the Rockies. It takes time, however, to re-establish the industry and we must be patient.

Stallions of note have been sent out here in the last few years and as was to be expected broodmares, as well, are being shipped to haras, north and south. One of the notable shipments was that of the H. C. Hatch breeding stock to Heather Farm. It is such strains as that of the Hatch stallion Sweepster and the Hatch band of matrons that will build up breeding in the state to something approaching the high standard of old, when California did not have to take a second place to any blood horse center in the world.

All the time the emphasis must be on the sporting angle. Breeding and racing are primarily for recreation and sad, indeed, will be the day when they are only promoted for purposes of gain, if that day ever comes to pass.

gency Hospital. Two years ago her father was killed in a collision at Bayshore and Army street in San Francisco.

With her husband's death, the widow fought bravely to bring up five children. Last week there was promise of brighter days as her oldest daughter secured an $18 a week job and became the chief support of the family.

LAST PARTY

Saturday night Miss Schonbacher went on a party with Stinson who resides at a San Francisco hotel, where she worked. The accident occurred while they were returning to San Francisco. She and another passenger in the car, Jennie Kanatsozer, 24, 1500 Twenty-sixth street, San Francisco, who was injured slightly, were taken to the hospital by Charles Noland and Hugh Rose of Burlingame, who were passing at the time of the accident.

Stinson was questioned Monday at the district attorney's office in Redwood City.

DOINGS OF THE DALY CITY ROD AND GUN CLUB

(By Frederick Wegner)

Ed Moore and Mr. Hewitt were the interesting speakers at the February meeting of the Daly City Rod and Gun Club.

Mr. Moore spoke on the promotion of the junior game wardens — the Daly City Rod and Gun club and the San Francisco Rod and Gun Club to sponsor the second troop with the aid of the State Fish and Game commission. These boys are to have uniforms, instructions on fish and game laws, how to tie fly rods, wind a rod, repair reels and how to handle guns.

Mr. Hewitt's topic was the opening of the Spring Valley Lake to the Associated Sportsmen, where they can fish to "their heart's delight" — of course, there are rules and regulations, boys!

Mr. Moore is a member of the San Francisco and Daly City Rod and Gun clubs and one of the board of directors. Mr. Hewitt is president of the Peninsula Sportsmen club.

The meeting was adjourned and the members retired to the banquet room, where light refreshments were enjoyed by all.

Women's Civic Club Installs

The Women's Civic Club of Daly City held the regular monthly meeting, Thursday evening of last week, at 151 Wellington avenue, Mrs. Maynard Chesney presiding.

The club sent a donation to the Red Cross for flood relief.

Final arrangements were made for the valentine and candy party the club sponsored for the children of the General Pershing play grounds, held Saturday of last week, under the chairmanship of Mrs. A. Eason and Mrs. C. Abbott.

At the conclusion of the business meeting installation of the newly elected officers was held, the following being installed: Mrs. J. Malowany, president; Mrs. E. Lewis, vice president; Mrs. M. Linden, corresponding secretary; Mrs. C. Abbott, treasurer; Mrs. F. Morrison, secretary; Mrs. E. Cavagnero, historian; Mrs. M. Chesney, parliamentarian; Mrs. A. Eason, auditor; Mrs. A. Denning, marshal.

Mrs. M. Chesney, outgoing president, was presented with a lovely gift. All officers were presented with a corsage composed of an orchid and lilies of the valley, the handiwork of Mrs. Abbott.

Following the meeting refreshments were served and a social evening enjoyed.

Negro Giant Accused Of Boxcar Murder

Henry Shelton, 31, giant Negro gardener and country transient with a long police record, stood indirectly accused, Wednesday of this week, of the Brisbane boxcar murder of Joseph Davis, 37, colored itinerant.

His accuser was Jake Edwards, 37, Negro laborer, who was arrested with Shelton in San Francisco after the pair had become involved in a quarrel with a Southern Pacific employee.

Edwards related to Sheriff James J. McGrath that on the week end of February 7, following a fight between Davis and another transient, Shelton struck Davis, then led him off to the boxcar.

A few minutes later, Edwards told the sheriff, Shelton rejoined the group around the campfire, saying grimly, "There will be no more trouble in this jungle."

Sheriff McGrath said he believed "we have the right man." He said Shelton is known to have a violent and vicious temper.

Shelton, not booked for murder, is being held for investigation, awaiting questioning by Sheriff McGrath and Undersheriff Lawrence Nieri.

The local merchant can increase his business and keep purchases at home by advertising in The Record.

San Mateo Jaysee In Basketball Race

San Mateo Junior College basketball players meet the league leading Modesto Jaysee in two games today and tomorrow in the Matean gym. San Mateo is now tied with San Francisco jaysee for second place, and a win over Modesto will throw the peninsula squad up into striking distance of the conference title.

San Mateo defeated Menlo jaysee in the last two league games played, 47-36 and 58-46.

Track, crew, tennis and basketball are now getting started at San Mateo, while wrestling and boxing teams are already holding practice matches. Weather conditions postponed the outdoor sports.

ARMY DOES JOB

The physical work of reclaiming the island from the bottom of San Francisco Bay has been accomplished by the Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army, following plans provided by the exposition department of works.

The project of filling in this island, more than a mile long and over two-thirds of a mile wide, set up the initial challenge of providing 20,000,000 cubic yards of material to construct 400 acres of land to a level of 13 feet above mean low water.

The secondary task was the creation of a great rock seawall, three miles in length and totaling 220,000 tons of rock, to encircle the exposition island and serve as a retaining dike against sweeping tides in and out of the Golden Gate.

A fleet of derrick barges and hustling tugs have nearly finished their task of completing the giant seawall that will encircle the site. They are now speeding up their project of depositing rock from the quarries of the north bay counties on the exposition shorewalls.
